About the Show:

With winter in full swing, we're warming up the Gallery with a hot All Gallery Artists Show, which includes new work from fiber artists Jacki Moseley and Amy Nguyen; furniture/wood artists Paul Flessner, Makoto Imai, Warren Pollock, and Carl Yurdin. We are taking the opportunity to introduce painter Corinne Carbone (Bainbridge Island) and fiber artist Linda St. Angelo (Seattle), artists newly located to the Northwest, as well as woodworker Greg Robinson (Bellingham).

Featured studio furniture includes hand crafted hall tables and designer turned bowls. Fiber art includes Joomchi paper wall art, Nuno felted wall sculptures and rarely available wearable art jackets from nationally acclaimed shibori artist Amy Nguyen. Paintings featured are whimsical abstract animal portraits. As Bainbridge painter Corinne Carbone notes: Being an abstract artist, it is about the story I want to tell through my images. Be it landscape, people or animals. I always strive for a reaction, nothing too obvious but maybe subtle and hopefully relatable.

Reception, First Friday, February 7th, 6-8pm, with Awkward Grace in concert.

About The Island Gallery

Established in 2002, The Island Gallery features internationally recognized artists whose work takes traditional art forms in exciting new directions: studio furniture and sculpture; museum quality textile art and wearables; wood fired ceramics from the finest potters in America; paintings and prints; and unique jewelry creations. Monthly exhibitions include live musical concerts, featuring such genres as jazz, rock, folk, chamber music and performance art. This, along with its reputation for excellence, makes The Island Gallery a destination spot on beautiful Bainbridge Island, a short ferry ride from Seattle, and steps from the new Bainbridge Island Museum of Art. In 2017 we celebrated 15 years of collaboration with unique and talented artists from near and far.
