Chris Demarest:

Sea Adventures

Stories in Sculpture & Print

May 3 – June 28, 2019

In collaboration with
Eagle Harbor Books

First Friday Artwalk, May 3rd, 6-8 pm

In Concert:
Ranger and the Re-Arrangers

IMAGE SHOWN ABOVE:

Chris Demarest, Viking Ship Diorama detail. Wood, shoji paper

About the Show:

This show combines storytelling of great Sea Adventures (such as The Old Man and the Sea, Endurance: Shackleton's Incredible Voyage, Kon-Tiki, Moby Dick, and Snow Falling on Cedars) with art through sculptural dioramas, bringing them alive in an art form accessible to all ages. In all, 10 dioramas will be featured along with books associated with the dioramas, in collaboration with Eagle Harbor Books. Chris Demarest is an engaging speaker who can inspire others, especially children, to read these wonderful adventure stories and express their reactions in a creative way, via sculpture or painting. What can be more awe-inspiring when living on an island than understanding the lure and dangers of the sea!

Chris can make himself available for special visits to classrooms or groups to discuss his adventures, or for interviews. Please contact the Gallery to arrange to meet Chris.

About the Artist:

Chris Demarest (Bainbridge Island, Washington). Born in New England in 1951, most of Chris's career has been in children's publishing with over 100 titles to his credit. FIREFIGHTERS A to Z was a New York Times Best Book (2000). Research has taken him as far as the Persian Gulf, as an official artist for the US Coast Guard, as well as flying into Hurricane Ivan with the Hurricane Hunters. From 2011-2017, he traveled the country painting in museums and libraries portraits of World War II era men and women while collecting their stories. The tour brought him to Bainbridge Island in 2017 where he documented the internment of local Japanese Americans, the main painting now hanging at the island's Historical Museum. In 2018, he settled on Bainbridge Island where he began exploring sculpture in wood and shoji paper, leftovers from a teahouse studio he built. The World War II exhibit is now permanently housed at the Palm Springs Air Museum, Palm Springs, California. A smaller exhibit is currently touring Alaska.

In Chris' words: My influences for decades have come from Japan and Scandinavia, pulling elements from each culture: line, sparseness, simplicity and material. Though my background has been in both traditional portraiture and children's books, three-dimensional work has floated throughout my life. Moving to Bainbridge Island, building a teahouse, it was working with leftover shoji paper that led to my current work: sculpture and lighting. Borrowing from Scandinavia the word "hygge" to define cozy, comfort and my essential building material, shoji paper, I call my work: "Shygge".

About The Island Gallery

Established in 2002, The Island Gallery features internationally recognized artists whose work takes traditional art forms in exciting new directions: studio furniture and sculpture; museum quality textile art and wearables; wood fired ceramics from the finest potters in America; paintings and prints; and unique jewelry creations. Monthly exhibitions include live musical concerts, featuring such genres as jazz, rock, folk, chamber music and performance art. This, along with its reputation for excellence, makes The Island Gallery a destination spot on beautiful Bainbridge Island, a short ferry ride from Seattle, and steps from the new Bainbridge Island Museum of Art. In 2017 we celebrated 15 years of collaboration with unique and talented artists from near and far.
